About this Report

Health Care in Massachusetts: Key Indicators is a quarterly report from the Division of Health Care Finance and Policy. Key Indicators provides an overview of the Massachusetts health care landscape through data reported by providers, health plans, government, and through surveys of Massachusetts residents and employers. The Division received positive feedback from readers of prior editions of this report and has incorporated suggestions for improvement where possible. We continue to strive to make this report as useful as possible and welcome your feedback.

In this edition of Health Care in Massachusetts: Key Indicators, the Division found that since the implementation of health reform over 439,000 additional people have obtained health insurance. Nearly half of that growth (191,000) has been in private group coverage (i.e., through employers) or individual purchase. In the first quarter of the Health Safety Net, volume in hospitals and community health centers decreased by 37% compared to the same period in the prior year. Payments decreased by 41% over the same period. This edition also includes updates of the following: cost trends in health insurance premiums compared to the Commonwealth Health Insurance Connector Authority's new affordability schedule for 2008, health plan financial performance, hospital financial performance, community health center financial performance, and other indicators of health care in Massachusetts. New to this edition is detailed information on individual community health center financial performance. New data are currently unavailable for the employer survey and the access to care charts; these pages are carried over from the previous edition.

The Division would like to thank Nancy Turnbull of the Harvard School of Public Health for her strategic and analytic support in the conception and development of this report, and staff at the Department of Public Health, including Monica Valdes Lupi, Bruce B. Cohen, Gerald O'Keefe, and Zi Zhang (formerly of DPH) for their significant contributions to the health care access section. We also thank Robin Callahan and Ben Walker from the Office of Medicaid, Bob Carey and Kaitlyn Kenney at the Commonwealth Health Insurance Connector Authority, Randy Garten from the Executive Office of Elder Affairs, Nancy Schwartz at the Division of Insurance, and Catherine Moore at the Group Insurance Commission for their support and review of the data. Finally, we thank the staff at the health plans for their timely responses to our requests for enrollment data.

Employers Offering Health Insurance

Percent of Employers

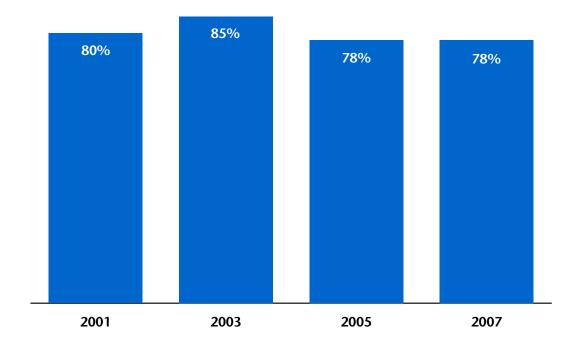

Nearly three-quarters of Massachusetts employers offer health insurance to their employees. The Massachusetts employer offer rate has held steady, even as the employer offer rate declined nationally from 68% to 60% between 2001 and 2007, as reported in the Kaiser/HRET survey.

Note: The changes from year to year are not statistically significant.

Employees Enrolled in Health Insurance

Percent of Eligible Employees

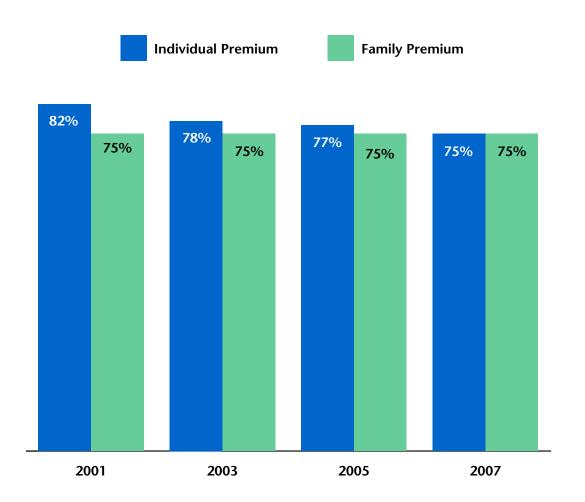

More than threequarters of employees eligible for health insurance enrolled in their employer's health plan in 2007. Nationally, the takeup rate for employees eligible for health insurance was 82% in 2007 as reported in the Kaiser/HRET survey. While Massachusetts employers are more likely to offer coverage than employers nationwide, employees are less likely to enroll.

Medical Expense Ratio

by Health Plan for the First Three Months of 2008

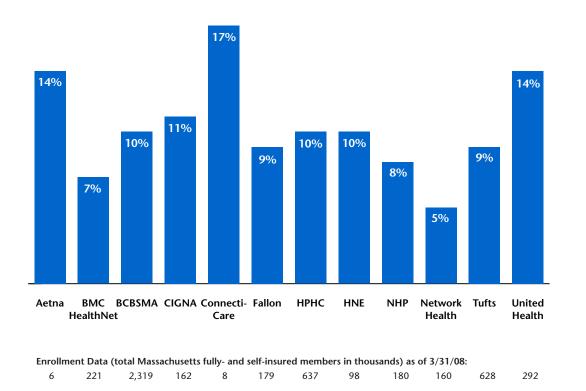

Note: Medical expense ratio is calculated by dividing total hospital and medical expenses by total revenue (without investment income). Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts (BCBSMA) includes the combined performance of BCBSMA and HMO Blue. Ratios may not sum to 100% due to rounding. Massachusetts Division of Insurance (DOI) financial information represents Massachusetts licensed plans including Medicare, MassHealth and Commonwealth Care as well as members who are not Massachusetts residents. Enrollment data includes Massachusetts residents only, MassHealth, Commonwealth Care, Medicare, fully-insured and self-insured members. Enrollment information is limited to health plans that are required to report to the DOI, MassHealth or the Commonwealth Health Insurance Connector Authority. The numbers will not add up to total enrollment presented in slides 2 and 3. Aetna enrollment represents only Aetna Health Inc. (a Pennsylvania Corporation), and does not include approximately 148,000 members covered under Aetna Life Insurance Company. Harvard Pilgrim Health Care enrollment does not include approximately 60,000 members enrolled in subsidiary Health Plans Inc.

The four largest health plans cover more than 3,876,000 Massachusetts residents in fully-insured and self-insured products. These plans spent between 81% and 90% of total revenue dollars on medical services provided to members in the first three months of 2008.

Administrative Expense Ratio

by Health Plan for the First Three Months of 2008

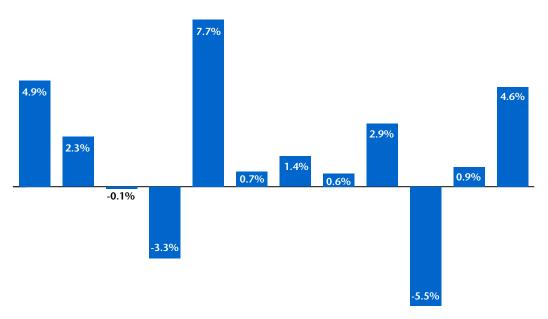

Note: Administrative expense ratio is calculated by dividing total administrative expenses (including claims adjustment and general administrative expenses) by total revenue (including investment gain/Joss). Blue Cross Blue Shield of Massachusetts (BCBSMA) includes the combined performance of BCBSMA and HMO Blue. Ratios may not sum to 100% due to rounding. Massachusetts Division of Insurance (DOI) financial information represents Massachusetts licensed plans including Medicare, MassHealth and Commonwealth Care as well as members who are not Massachusetts residents. Enrollment data includes Massachusetts residents only, MassHealth, Commonwealth Care, Medicare, fully-insured and self-insured members. Days in reserve is a measure of financial solvency. It reflects the number of days of medical expenses a plan could fund from its net worth. Performance on this measure varies widely, but nearly every plan reported net worth that is equal to at least two months of days in reserve in the first three months of 2008.

Total Margin Trend

by Year

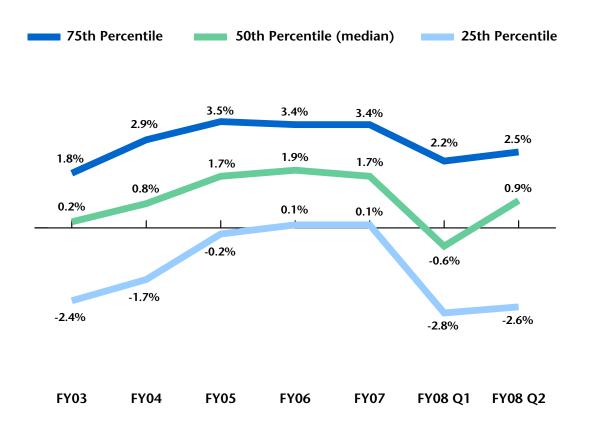

The overall financial performance of acute hospitals improved from FY03 to FY07. While overall financial performance appears to be trending downward in the first two quarters of FY08, caution should be taken when interpreting the FY08 quarterly results because quarterly performance is not necessarily indicative of year end results.

Note: Total margin is calculated by dividing total income by total revenue. Fiscal year ends (FYEs) vary across hospitals: of 66 hospitals, 3 hospitals have a 6/30 FYE, 1 hospital has a 3/31 FYE, and 1 hospital has a 12/31 FYE. The remaining 61 hospitals have a 9/30 FYE.

Operating Margin Trend

by Year

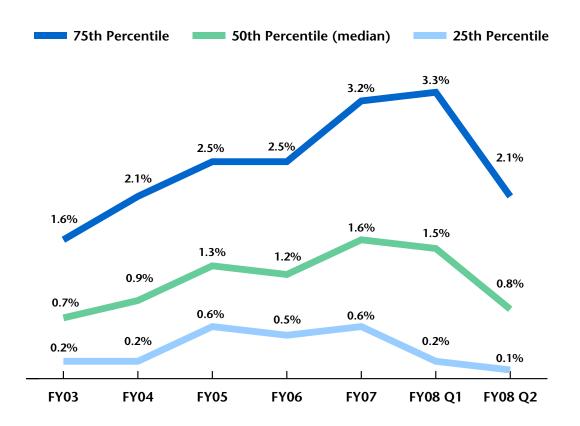

Operating margins climbed slightly between FY03 and FY07. For the first two quarters of FY08, operating margins appear to be lower than those experienced over the last three years. However, caution should be taken when interpreting the FY08 quarterly results because quarterly performance is not necessarily indicative of year end results.

Note: Operating margin is calculated by dividing operating income by total revenue. Fiscal year ends (FYEs) vary across hospitals: of 66 hospitals, 3 hospitals have a 6/30 FYE, 1 hospital has a 3/31 FYE, and 1 hospital has a 12/31 FYE. The remaining 61 hospitals have a 9/30 FYE.

Non-Operating Margin Trend

by Year

Non-operating margins for acute hospitals improved from FY03 to FY07. However, for the first two quarters of FY08, non-operating margins fell.

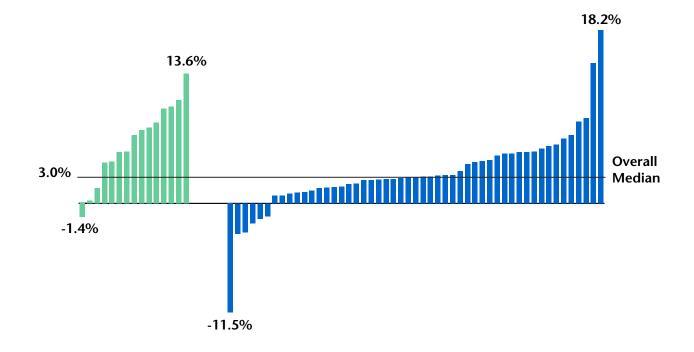

Caution should be taken when interpreting the FY08 quarterly results because quarterly performance is not necessarily indicative of year end results.

Note: Non-operating margin is calculated by dividing non-operating income by total revenue. Fiscal year ends (FYEs) vary across hospitals: of 66 hospitals, 3 hospitals have a 6/30 FYE, 1 hospital has a 3/31 FYE, and 1 hospital has a 12/31 FYE. The remaining 61 hospitals have a 9/30 FYE.
